ELECTIONS YESTERDAY. The Returns Pennsylvania. Hartranft Elected by 15,000 Majority

London, Oct. 8.—The elections America are awaited with anxiety.

vote is being polled in this city. The election is progressing very quietly. Under the new law all taverns are to be closed. The United States Marshal has eight hundred special officers on duty distributed among the wards where trouble is likely to occur. Up to noon no serious disturbance is reported.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 8.—In Philadelphia seventeen wards received give Hartranft a majority of 5,944. Twelve wards to hear from gave last year 7,854, which will probably be increased so as to make the total majority 15,000 in the city.

Reddy, the blacksmith, from New York, was arrested here after voting three times, and locked up for further hearing; fifteen tax receipts were found on him. In the fourth ward, the strongest Democratic ward in the city, the hourly announcement of the votes cast shows that more Republican potes have been cast than are usually polled during the whole day.

Views at Headquarters.

At the headquarters of the Republican State Central Committee they are calculating on a large increase in the Republican vote in this city. The reports from the various wards warrant the belief that Hartranst's majority will be twenty thousand. At the Liberal Democratic headquarters, they appear confident, though not expecteffect much in the city. In thirteen wards of the city, during the first hour Hartranft was 2,681 ahead of Buckalew, and over 600 ahead of the Reublican city ticket. This is viewed as an dication that Hartranft will exceed the the vote of the Republican ticket, and not fall behind as was supposed. The second ward will, it is asserted by the Evening Telegraph, be carried by the Republicans for the first time in eight years, and also that the Republican candidate for the State Senate will be elected.

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—A special from Philadelphia says up to 10 o'clock the re-sult was as fellows: In the 5th, 7th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 14th and 22d wards Hart-rauft has 2,728, Buckalew 1,262; Republican majority 1,431. In the lower wards Hartranft leads his ticket. These wards are heavily Democratic. Scratching, which has taken place only in the central wards, At Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Oct.—Dispatches from various parts of the State show that little disaffection has been manifested among the Republicans, as Hartranft has not fallen behind his ticket. CINCINNATI, Oct. 8 .- The election

CINCINNATI, Oct. S.—The election is proceeding quietly throughout the city. A very large vote is being polled. Unusual precaution has been taken by the Mayor in the 6th ward, the scene of last night's disturbance, to preserve the peace. An Irishman who was swearing vengeance against the colored people was arrested at an early hour, and on being taken to the station-house was relieved of a pistol and cartridge which he had in his pocket. Aside from this there has been little use for the details of police which have been provided to guard against trouble in this ward, where the colored people largely reside. Wherever the responsibility may rest, it is believed that precaution will be taken bereafter during the campaign to guard against a recurrence of disturbances. CINCINNATI, Oct.8.—But one precinct is cincinnati, Oct. 8.—But one precinct is in from the city, and this ward having been divided since the fall election, cannot compare with the previous general election. The let precinct, 24th ward, gives Hayes 51 majority, a Republican loss of 61 since the spring election. The 17th ward 208, a Democratic and Liberal Republican gain. Half the State Heard from-Radical by Decreased Majorities. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 9-1:10, A. M.-Partial returns from half the counties of the State show a Republican gain of 3,000 over the vote of Noyes in 1871, when the Republican major ty reached 20,000. This will be reduced by Democratic gains in Hamilton and Cuyaboga counties, leaving the Republican majority not less than 15,-000 in the State. At Republican head-quarters it is claimed that the reported and unreported gains will leave the majority about as last year.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—Returns from fourteen wards and precincts of the first Congressional district show Democratic and Liberal gains of 673 on Sayler, Demo-crat, who from these figures would seem elected by 2,500 to 3,000. Fourteen wards and precincts of the second district give Banning, Liberal, a gain of 502. Similar gains in the remainder of the district would give him a majority over Hays of 1,200 to Thirteen wards and precincts in this county indicate that Taft, Republican, ran ahead of his ticket, though the Democratic gain is 188. This, with corresponding gains would give Dodds, Democrat, for the short term in the 1st district, about 2,000 major-

Twenty-eight wards and precincts show the Democratic and Liberal gains on the State ticket over the spring election of 1,392, which would give a Democratic and Liberal majority in the county of over 4,000 for the Secretary of State.

Fraudulent Negroes Caught in New NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8 .- Arrests have been made of several persons charged with false registration yesterday. Some 25 col-ored men were arrested, charged with ille-gal registration, and the authorities are making investigations. NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 8.—The charter election resulted in over 2,000 Republican majority, being a gain of nearly 1,000 over last year's charter election, and more than 300 over Gov. In the former year the total registration reached 152,592, and in the latter 168,872. It is reported that a joint ticket is already agreed upon at a meeting of the De-mocratic Union Conference Committee, appointed to consult with other organizaions, and to select candidates for mayor

Morton's Desperation.

INDIANAPOLIS, O.t. 7.—Senator Morton in several counties in this district is trading off Coburn, candidate for Congress, for votes for the Legislature, particularly in Morgan and Putnam. The Journal detected him in this, and complains bitterly this morning. It calls upon its party friends to stand up for Coburn. This game is played every where by Morton.

Boutwell's Broken Pledges. WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 .- The order of Secretary Boutwell designed to affect the momentary operations in Wall street creates much criticism here. It is generally believed that he object is to put meney in the pockets of the government ring in Wall street; but others assert that the Administration are ready in case they are beaten in the October election to precipitate a com-mercial panic. Others claim that it is produced by the anticipation of Greeley's elec-

the North are favorable. The Straight-out vote will be small, not exceeding 500, and for every vote thus lost there will be a gain of four or five Liberal Republicans. Senator Johason will continue in the canvass up to the day of the Presidential election. It is thought that Gen. Early's letter in favor of Greeley will have a strong influence. in each a considerable colored vote.

Again is heard the same old story, that oft repeated tale of love, confidence and ruin, and comes to be seen a withered life while youth was brightest and hope the highest. Too often the dread robbery of moral happiness is made, and too fre-quent the blushing cheek of shame is but the imprinted dye of guilt and of disgrace removeless. Near, four weeks ago a young woman, withal beautiful in feature and graceful in form, came to this city, and claimed to be from Louisville, Kentucky. Her nervous look and the terrified paleness which at times crept over her ruddy cheeks, hiding its natural color like the snow would the rose leaf, told the story at once, and explained the indelicate reason of one young and unknown leaving her home, perhaps of wealth and luxury, to dwell mid strangers. Remaining near two weeks at a hotel, she repaired to the shanty humble poverty though with contented char- CLOCKS. WATCHES AND JEWELLEY. ity on Front street. Here a child was born and the unfortunate woman remained until Saturday last, when she took the one o'clock train avowedly for Louisville, leaving the infant with the colored woman and promising to return in a few days, stating that her visit to a friend from whom she had that morning received a telegram and a sum of money. Since leaving nothing has been heard from this woman, whose child is still with the old colored woman who says she will keep it kindly, though she wants some kind fathe and mother to adopt the little outcast. The statement that the young woman is from Louisville is untrue. The dispatch received from her friend was from a small town in Kentucky, on the line of the Lou-isville and Nashville Railroad. Near this point she left the train and her former home is known though not stated in this connection. The unhappy woman while here refused to tell her name, give her parentage or see any one. Though penitent and evidently deploring the miserable condition to which the confidence of love and the honor of affection had consigned her, she tore her name from a prayer book and a bible, not even wishing the eyes of the most sympathetic and charitable to read it. Were we disposed to publish what is known concerning this affair it would bring tears to many and mantle with a blush of shame the cheeks of unsuspecting ones whose unclouded hearts little feel that blighting
